

The Klove radio station provides high quality broadcasting, providing timely and relevant information. The Klove station provides family appropriate music and announcements. There are few stations whose content and commercials are 'safe' for the family; and whose content is relevant and enjoyable.